"I think she's just starting to find out what she can do."

Bright, who won the 100 hurdles in a season-best 12.92 seconds and the 300 hurdles in a school-record 44.47, didn't quite know what to say.

"I'm not great when it comes to compliments," she said. "I love 'em — who doesn't? — but I'm a little embarrassed. I'm just not sure how to take them."

She is definitely listening, how-left. Who knows what will happen."

While Bright's performance was impressive, she didn't go home with a meet record. Eight other girls — seven from Traverse City Central — did.

Trojan junior Rachel Sturtz was in on three victories and two Honor Roll records, all in relays. Sturtz, Heather Willson, Becky Witkop and Sara DeBruyn set a record in the first running event of the evening, the 3200 (9:34.25).

Records also went to Kingsley's Kristin Weber in the discus and Central's Jillian Hinds in the pole vault.

Hinds shattered the record set by former Kingsley teammate Casie Roop with a toss of 128'8½" — just over nine feet better than Roop's 119'8" of a year ago. Kalkaska's Shandy Atwood also broke the record, finishing second at 122'6½".

Marlynn Bandlow, 76, ran the 10K in 49:27.

76-year-old runner 'amazing'

TRAVERSE CITY — Marlynn Bandlow started running when he was 43 and he hasn't stopped since.

The 76-year-old Kewadin resident was among the medal winners in Saturday's Bayshore 10K when he posted a time of 49 minutes, 27 seconds — two months after running his 21st marathon.

"He's amazing," said Traverse City's Tom Auch.

Bandlow was first in his age group, 134th out of 213 in the men's division, and 175th overall out of 360 runners.

"He has a pacemaker or else he'd probably run even faster," said Honor's Brian Lea.

Bandlow, who won his age division in the Los Angeles Marathon in March by running a 4:06, ran a 7:58 pace at Bayshore.

Bandlow is a latecomer to the sport. He was 43 when he decided to take it up.

"I read a story about a 49-year-old heart doctor who ran a mile a day," Bandlow said. "He said it improved his circulation, his blood pressure went down, his pulse went down."

"I thought if he can do it at 49, I can certainly do it at 43. Well, it took me nine months to run a mile."

Bandlow ran his first marathon at the age of 65. He runs two a year — one in the spring and one in the fall. He plans to take part in the Detroit Free Press Marathon in October.

"Lord willing," he said, smiling. "That's where I'm from. I used to peddle that paper when I was a kid."

Complete results of the 10K are on 2C.
